WASHINGTON

VOL. XIV.

WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1896.

No. 34.

HON. RICHARD OLNEY.

The Secretary of State who brought the Waller case to a successful issue. The President and Secretary Olney will please accept the congratulations of The BEE.

PRINCESS MARIE LOUISE.

The eldest daughter of the Duke of Parmar. She is an accomplished lady, being the mistress of half dozen languages and a good musician.

They Say

Have District Afro-Americans improved?

Can they distinguish between intelligence and ignorance?

Will sentiment continue to control the young of to-day as it did the old in the past?

Young negroes ought to know that the race is to be elevated and not degenerated.

The members of the Acanthus Club are either fools or they are making a mockery of their own intelligence.

Election by fraud does not always indicate a man's popularity.

Bailey was elected but his lieutenants allowed the opposition to out-count them.

Tom Platt, the little, is either a fool or a knave.

The "Marked Congress" is to be transferred to the Bethel Literary. Certainly the people will not stand this.

The citizens of Georgia want to know if the "Marked Congress" is respected in this city.

It could not be respected in Georgia.

Positions in this city will advance a thief but degrade a gentleman.

Morality will take a back seat in the future.

Some Christian associations wink at morality for money.

Will the people of this community longer tolerate sham associations?

There is sham among pretended Christians as well as there is among pretended moralists.

D. F. Seville has returned to his first love The Bee.

Inspector Hollinberger has some very good men in his department.

Is Harmony Cemetery well protected?

The "Marked Congress" is very much "mocked."

The Bee's National Republican Souvenir Edition will be the great-est issued.

Don't fail to be in the National Republican Souvenir Edition of The Bee.

The greatest Afro-American journal is The Bee.

All communications for publication or otherwise must be sent to The Bee Printing Company.

The colored attorneys are still on top.

Is there any honesty in the Afro-American?

Col. James Hill of Mississippi is in a fight with lawyer Lynch.

The Morton Club will give a private entertainment in their club rooms.

The candidates are no doubt convinced that The Bee was correct.

Lookout for the National Republican Souvenir number.

The Commissioners should advocate the bill establishing a new gas company.

The January bills for gas were outrageous.

Why not advocate a negro for Vice-President?

What can the negro expect under the next administration?

You should patronize The Bee.

Assistant District Attorney Pugh is a high-toned Southern gentleman.

Judge Kimball is a conscientious man so says Mr. Pugh.

Our conscience sometimes goes contrary to law.

The Post is off on the negro question.

Rev. Brown asserted in this city that he would run the brave John Mitchell out of Richmond.

The people of Richmond who stand by Mitchell say to the contrary.

Mitchel is a power in Virginia. He has won the hearts of the people.

Mitchel is more of a benefit to the Richmond people than Brown.

PARKER, BRIDGET & CO.,
CLOTHIERS, 315 7TH ST.

Any of the above Styles.

New Clothing Here Less than the others' Old!

Our Mr. Harry Parker has just returned from New York, where he secured an immense purchase of Men's New Stylish Suits, which go on sale to-day at lower prices than the other Clothiers are asking for their shelf-worn, antiquated garments.

You remember what an immense success we had with our $6.25 sale this time last year. We shall eclipse it this month. Don't think of buying out-of-date shop-worn clothing so long as you can get the "cream" of the season's styles for less money.

Our immense lot of Men's Single and Double-Breasted Sack Suits in black and navy blue chevots and fancy mixtures.

Also Fine Black Diagonal Cut-a-way Coats and Vests, all which are made to sell for $10, $12 and $15.

Choice, $6.25.

Big lot of Men's Heavy Winter Overcoats, navy blue and black. Made to sell for $10, $12 and $15.

Choice, $7.50.

Men's Extra-fine Heavy Melton and Kersey Cloth Overcoats, velvet collar, the finest introduced this season, but slightly broken in sizes. Made up to sell for $17.50, $20, $25 and $30.

Choice, $12.

Odd Trousers for $2.25.

Immense assortment of Men's Odd Trousers, quite a number of neat stripes, but the majority of them are odd pairs left from the past season's Suits which sold from $10 to $20.

Choice, $2.25.

Needless to ask that you investigate and make a comparison before buying outside of our establishment. No matter what others may lead you to expect from the newspapers, we warn you to be careful. We obligate ourselves to sell you better Clothing for less money than you will pay at any sale in Washington.

THE WALLER CASE.

By the report of the Attorney General in the Waller case, it is evident that Mr. Waller was somewhat indiscreet, while at Madagascar.

Certainly the administration should be commended and not condemned in its efforts to have Mr. Waller released from the French.

The Bee is willing to admit that the administration has left no stone unturned to get at the bottom of the Waller case and to have him released.

The administration says that Mr. Waller is guilty of conspiracy against the French, notwithstanding this Government and the friends of Waller have induced the French to release Waller from his twenty years imprisonment.

Let Afro-Americans be considerate as well as sympathetic.

Indeed, there has been and there is now too much sympathy on the part of Afro-Americans.

They seem to forget that wrongs among them must not be condemned and punished.

If a thief is shot by an officer, the first thing that is done is to hold an indignation meeting, whereby some worthless and loud mouth politician is enabled to give vent to some surplus gas.

The Bee for one tenders its thanks to the administration in having Mr. Waller released from the French.

OUR CLINICS.

As usual and not a surprise to The Bee, the Washington Post that has been suffering with delirium tremens for some time, and anything it may say, misrepresenting the colored people in this community, must be received with sympathy. A report of the clinics, at the Freedmen's Hospital is evidence that the Post is effected in more ways than one.

The Post wanted a sensational article about something, and it no doubt concluded that the clinical exercises at the Hospital would be just the thing for its columns.

Dr. Williams may be unpopular among his people for which he can only blame himself, but there is no use of misrepresenting him and the Hospital of which he has charge. Dr. Williams, we understand, will resign at the end of the present administration, or after the inauguration of the next President, and if this be true, he certainly ought to be let alone.

Dr. Williams has had bad advisers which is the cause of the enmity against him.

OUR NEW ACQUISITION.

Mr. D. F. Seville, formerly connected with The Bee, and who recently went upon the editorial staff of a local colored paper has returned to The Bee's reportorial staff, which no doubt will be pleasing and gratifying to our many readers.

Mr. Seville is well equipped in the line of work in which he is engaged, who alone will edit and conduct the column of the secret orders which shall appear in The Bee each week under his immediate supervision and production.

Mr. Seville is a good writer and one of the best informed men in the mystic shrine and all other secret orders.

He will make his column pleasing and in erasing and will give live news concerning all societies in this city and country.

TELEGRAMS IN BRIEF.

The British Government has received a dispatch stating that the British forces have won two victories over the slave traders in Central Africa.

It is now believed that ex-Consul Waller will be unconditionally released by France on condition that the United States waive all claims for indemnity.

There are but forty voters in Somers Point, N. J., and fourteen of them have declared their intention of running for the office of Mayor at the spring election.

Gen. S. W. Westmore, a graduate of West Point, committed suicide at New Orleans by jumping into the Mississippi. He believed he was doomed to ill health.

Edwin F. Uhl, of Michigan, now Assistant Secretary of State, has been tendered the post of Ambassador to Germany, to succeed the late Theodore Runyon, and has accepted.

After waiting fifteen years J. E. Watkins and Miss Mary Passmore, of Hammond, N. J., have been married. Miss Passmore's father objected to the marriage. He died a few weeks ago.

It has just developed that on December 19 James Edgar Bain Earl, a well-known young man of Kinderhook, N. Y., and Luella Maude Hope Booth, an English actress, were married in Paterson, N. J.

Representative Low (Rep., N. Y.) has introduced a bill in Congress for the construction of fifty fast torpedo boats at not more than $175,000 each and six torpedo gunboats and torpedo destroyers at not more than $500,000 each. The bill appropriates $11,750,000.

At a meeting of the Prohibition Amendment League of Iowa at Des Moines, composed of about equal numbers of men and women, a fight developed. The women in bitter terms denounced the men as traitors to the cause. Then they cried and the men raved.

The Spanish cruiser Alfonso XIII, with Gen. Weyler, the newly appointed Captain-General and Commander-in-Chief of the Spanish forces in Cuba on board, has arrived at Havana. The usual salutes were fired. Gen. Weyler proceeded to the palace, and at once took the oath of office.

Tammany Hall gave Richard Croker an immense dinner in New York and presented him with a loving cup. But the dinner was marred by sedition. John C. Sheehan was openly repudiated, and his right to the leadership of Tammany Hall was bitterly denied. The feast is said to have cost $40 a plate.

Miss Hattie Benedict, aged nineteen, daughter of Eliza Benedict, a farmer, of Marengo, N. Y., has awakened from her five weeks of cataleptic sleep. She lay as one dead, utterly deprived of voice, hearing and muscular action, and yet she says she was sensible of what was taking place about her, and her great fear was that she would be buried alive. The cause is thought to be due to a constitutional defect superinduced by ill health. She is now very well.

The body of Prince Henry of Battenberg has arrived in England.

Senator William P. Frye, of Maine, has been elected President pro tem of the Senate.

AMONG THE SECRET ORDERS.

Here we are again. The Craftsman begs leave to announce to his friends and well wishers that he has severed his connection with the Colored American of Washington, D. C., and that he has returned to his Father's House, viz: The Bee. It is an undeniable fact that the Craftsman was the first negro, who inaugurated secret order publications in the District of Columbia among our people, and the same was published in The Bee, finely he wrote for other papers, among who were the Colored American, of Washington, D. C., whom he served faithfully from his infancy until February 1, 1896, when for several good reasons he severed his connections, and like the Prodigal Son he has returned to his Father's House, viz: The Washington Bee, the oldest paper published in the District of Columbia among our people.

The Craftsman will endeavor to impart light as he has done in the past. There is one thing that he desires to make mention of, viz: "That this is a free country and where one door is closed another is opened." The Craftsman dislikes to see people talk through their hats.

In the Star of February 8, 1896, page 9, there is a good illustration of official Censorship, whenever articles for publication, must be inspected before they are sent to the printer and some one must pass on them as to whether they are fit for publication. Such action is censorship in every sense of the word, and no beating around the bush. Now, what right? So dear friends, keep your eye on The Washington Bee for rich, rare, and racy news, which will appear from time to time.

William Andrew Freeman Lodge, No. 209, gave its annual reception at the Odd Fellows' Hall, February 7. The affair was a grand success. The Hall was well packed with some of our prominent folks, among the prominent Odd Fellows who belong to 209. We make mention of Brother James O. Holmes, Brother W. P. Gray and William Montague, S. W. Watson and others too numerous to mention, &c., &c.

Washington Patriarche, No. 18, G. U. O. F. O. F. under the leadership of Captain W. P. Gray (one of the finest) will make a pilgrimage to Richmond in the near future, further particulars given later. There is one thing about the Odd Fellows that is commendable. They always look out for the widows and orphans and they have done much to relieve suffering humanity.

Grand Master J. Fields Needham, of the Quaker City was here. He was the recipient of a fine dinner which was given by the brethren, who believe in fat, lard and tar. He was at the residence of Brother D. A. Clark (P. G. D.)

WHAT IT MEANS TO BE PRESIDENT.

Ex-President Harrison's next article in his series in the Ladies Home Journal will tell what it means to be President of the United States. He will outline the President's power, his duties and how to discharge them; the trials and annoyances to which he is put, and show what the central idea of the President is and how he tries to carry it out. General Harrison also explains what relation each Cabinet officer holds to the President, and tells of his own relations with his Cabinet when he was President.

FASHIONABLE.

An appreciable Winter indulgence for morning wear, is a dainty wrapper of one of the Oriental flannelettes. One with both comfort and style, has a yoke back and front, trimmed with a bertha of finely pleated lace silk, the color of which depends on the tones predominating in the material. The box pleated front and fullness come from underneath the yoke, which latter fastens on the shoulder and at the side.

For more elaborate occasions, one should have one for more dainty tea gowns. One of pale blue silk is pretty. The extra fullness is caught in at the waist line with long ribbons of a darker shade, while the fullness of the black nangs in graceful folds from the neck. The double collar simulates a yoke and is filled around with handsome cream lace.

A pretty jacket or two should figure in all nicely prepared trousseaux. The shape is very simple, consisting of a loose front and semi-tight back, trimmed with lace in yoke fashion. The fullness at the waist is held in by sash ribbon.

A handsome visiting gown for a young lady may be made of grass green moirai, adorned with bows of black velvet, sparkling with rhinestone buckles. Folds of black velvet around the elbows where the puff meet the lower part of the sleeve, narrow fur trimmings finishes the neck band.

The setting in of fan panels along the side seams of skirts freshens up a skirt that seems a little gone by. To freshen up the waist, a panel can also be used on the sleeves with the point downward and thus an old dress is transformed into a fashionable costume.

A notion that is all the rage just now is the covering of bodices with lace or net. For wear, with a brocade silk. Silk net of Brussels type is almost taking the place of chiffon for such use.

Capes for early Spring are made full and come well below the elbow. Crepon is the favorite material, and is lined with brilliant silk, an interline of flannel giving body and warmth.

A box plait of heavily spangled silk, hanging from a collar to match and turned under into a belt, is still recommended as a dressy finish to any gown.

Crepons are still to be worn, but it is not wise to make up a cheap quality, unless it is most carefully sponged as it is apt to shrink both ways. Many a gown is ruined by the shrinking of cheap crepons.

The rage for lace still continues and with open over petticoat style of skirts come a greater demand for it.

Black is very much worn, and black satin or silk material made with satin finish is used more than anything else for dressy wear.

The Spring materials are out in biscuit and linen colors.

Torquoise, hunter's green, and grass green seem to be the holding shades for Spring wear.

DEATH OF NOBLE H. HARRIS.

A PROMISING MAN PASSES AWAY.—GREAT RESPECT SHOWN HIM BY HIS ASSOCIATES.

Noble H. Harris, who passed the greater portion of the 36 years of his life in Washington, and graduated from the Public High School in the class of 1878, died in Philadelphia, February 6th, at 7:15 a. m. His remains were brought to this city, and the funeral took place from his father's residence, 1709 N street, n. w., Sunday, February 9th, at 2 o'clock p. m. During the nine years of his residence in Philadelphia, he associated himself in politics in the Seventh Ward, and was a committeeman. He won the esteem of all with whom he came in contact.

In consequence of being a genial companion and staunch friend, the following delegation accompanied the remains:

The West End Republican Club of Philadelphia, was represented by Messrs. I. B. Fletcher, William Caldwell, Joseph Spencer, Beverly Horton, Edward Ambush, and others. The Goodall Association was represented by James Goodall, Isaac Judah and Warren Williams. The Citizens' Club was also largely represented.

On the arrival of the delegation they went directly to the Morton Club, 1224 Pennsylvania avenue, where they were handsomely entertained with a luncheon in charge of the following named gentlemen: William M. Kennedy, C. Wash. Wood, Lewis Horton, Charles Cooper, Henry E. Burgess, Henry Jarvis, Jr., and Fred. Thompson.

During the funeral services a quintette of the original Amateur Glee Club, Hamillur Turley, J. Henry Lewis, Joseph Holmes, James Wilson and William Geary, rendered very effectively the selections, "Nearer My God To Thee" and "Rest Spirit Rest." The floral tributes from Philadelphia and from personal friends in the city, were many and handsome. The funeral was largely attended and many followed the remains to their last resting place in Harmony Cemetery.

Noble Harris was a genial young man, quiet, liberal and popular among all who knew him, and with whom he associated.

The funeral of Rev. Gaskins was held at the Metropolitan Baptist Church last Monday afternoon. Hundreds of friends viewed the remains. The ceremony was very impressive in which a large number of reverend gentlemen took a part.

Mr. Perry Robinson, in the 63rd year of his age, departed this life last Monday. His funeral took place from the Nineteenth Street Baptist Church, Thursday at 1 o'clock p. m.

"BAT" SHEA EXECUTED.

The Murderer of Robert Ross Dies in the Chair at Dannemora.

Dannemora, Feb. 12.—Bartholomew Shea was put to death in the electrical chair in Clinton prison at 9:53 o'clock yesterday morning. The twenty-seven witnesses were made up almost exclusively of physicians and newspaper men, all present in official capacities. At a signal from Warden Thayer the march was taken up, ending in the death chamber. It was just 9:55 o'clock when the procession entered the room. First came Warden Thayer and Deputy McKenna, and immediately behind them was Shea, escorted by Vicar-General Swift, of Troy, and Father Belanger, of Dannemora.

Shea's face was pale. He walked firmly to the chair, and during the minute it took to affix the straps he gazed calmly around the room. His eyes were bright and he looked more like a spectator than a man to be put to death.

The current was turned on at 9:58 o'clock and continued for one minute and twenty-one seconds, when it was shut off and Shea was pronounced dead. The highest voltage was 1,390. This, however, was continued only eleven seconds, when it was reduced to 150 volts, and continued at that voltage until the end. The autopsy revealed nothing out of the ordinary.

The following letter from Shea was opened after the execution:

"On the verge of death I desire to say that I do not think I had a fair trial. Extraordinary means were taken to convict me, and testimony given by Mr. Lansing was absolutely untrue. I am sorry for Ross's family, and for the gloom it has cast over them, but I did not go to the polls on election day to shoot Robert Ross, and had no intention of injuring him. I die for a crime I did not commit. I am an innocent man. I bid you all farewell."

CONGRESS HAS THE PAPERS.

President Remits 2,000 Documents Relating to the Cuban Revolution.

Washington, Feb. 12.—President Cleveland sent to the House yesterday, in response to a resolution, 2,000 letters of the Secretary of State, Minister De Lome, Consul-General Williams and others relative to the Cuban rebellion.

These are not the whole of the correspondence, but only such as the President thinks will embarrass the Administration's diplomacy upon publication. Now that the correspondence is in, a report on Cuban beligerency may be expected before long, and in view of the known American spirit of certain members, its character may be guessed.

The documents begin with the President's proclamation of neutrality of June 17, 1895, and include correspondence regarding the right of the Consul-General to present remonstrances, the progress of the insurrection, the protection and destruction of American property in Cuba, and the arrests or expulsion of about thirty American citizens. The bulky documents remitted go over the whole ground of correspondence, from the letter of Consul Hyatt, dated February 23, 1895, advising the State Department of the prospective breaking out of the rebellion, to the most recent reports and documents received or sent upon the Cuban question, whether relating to grievances caused by the Spanish authorities or the revolutionary forces.

WALLER IS GUILTY.

Secretary Olney Sends a Report of His Case to Congress.

Washington, Feb. 12.—The President sent to Congress yesterday a report from Secretary Olney and all the correspondence in the case of John L. Waller, ex-United States Consul to Tamatave, and now confined in a French prison under conviction of treason. Secretary Olney says Waller was unquestionably guilty of the offense charged, and that the penalty inflicted would be considered exceedingly moderate; but the French Government made an offer to release Waller from further imprisonment and pardon his offense on condition that the affair be thereby terminated as between the two governments, and that the United States should make no claim for damages in behalf of the accused ex-Consul based on his arrest, conviction and imprisonment. With reference to the Waller rubber concession, which he claimed was confiscated by France, Secretary Olney says there is no proof of the nature, extent, validity or value of the concession, and that it is certain that the French authorities have always held the concession to be without any validity.

GOV. MATTHEW'S ROBBED.

Burglars Set the Table and Leisurely Ate Supper.

Indianapolis, Feb. 12.—The home of Governor Matthews, in this city, was entered by burglars last night. The Governor's gold watch and $12 in money were stolen. The burglars set the table in the dining room, placed Mr. Matthews' "company" china on it, brought cold victuals from the pantry and placed them on the table. The meal appears to have been leisurely eaten. It is supposed that the thieves were in the house an hour or more. The family did not know till this morning that they had had guests in the night.

From the dining room table the family found the cards of "William Carroll" and "Strange N. Manner" lying by two plates. The burglars washed their supper down with a bottle of sherry. A box of cigars was missing from the mantel. One perfect was left at the Governor's plate, with a note which read: "To His Excellency—sorry you do not feel well enough to join us. We drink your health and leave you a cigar. Hope you will recover soon, but not too soon."

ALLEGED HOVAS UPRISING.

Unconfirmed Report of a Revolt Against the French in Madagascar.

Port Louis, Island of Mauritius, Feb. 12.—An unconfirmed report of a Hovas uprising against the French in Madagascar was published in a newspaper of the Island of Reunion. It claimed to be dated at Antananarivo January 24. Among other statements was one to the effect that a number of French officers and soldiers had been murdered.

Paris, Feb. 12.—Official dispatches from Antananarivo, dated January 23, the latest received here, make no mention of any disturbance, and describe the situation there as satisfactory.

you would be admired to cultivate temper, as a good temper is like every day, shedding brightness on every day.

most many people are far too narrow in their conception of what justice is.

Don't be despondent because hair is a reddish-brown. It denotes amiability, and sweetness of temper.

Women with coarse black hair are usually pensive, full of sentiment, but highly strung.

people would deal honestly with you, they would be surprised to find how many of their burdens they lay upon themselves and how comparatively few are laid upon them.

It is hardly necessary to do anything of the kind of your neighbors, except it is in the way of respect.

It is not so hard to dress well as you think. The most important thing to learn is to dress appropriately; women often appear ill dressed because they are only dressed unappropriately.

to follow the fashion does not necessarily mean that one must have it, because it is fashionable. Fashions are created as a guide in shaping clothes to become to one's figure, complexion, etc.

If you want to be respected and hope to receive the good things that the future has in store for you, you must be particular with whom you associate, how you talk, and when you go.

A person who is famous for asking personal questions should be avoided because he is more or less a knave.

The girl to be honored is the girl who works, although some girls make practice of impressing men of their ignorance of house-hold duties.

Nothing is more hurting than to find oneself acting in a false manner, although he may say that it was done for your interest, you could not believe it.

All men have their failures. It is not necessary to conclude, because a man is in wine and smokes cigars, that he is not a good husband.

Many secret marriages have taken place recently, but it is anything but a compliment to a young man or woman.

A nice girl will hardly answer personal questions in a newspaper, nor will she correspond with great many men.

A girl who is refined in her taste and quick in perception finds many admirers.

Don't fall in love with your own image and think every body would like you, for very often you are the object of ridicule by the better thinking people.

It is well to be proud and not let the world know your needs, but it is miserably bad to entertain the idea that you are rich when the inner man is not satisfied.

Girls who fall in love with their own eyes usually become 'old maids.'

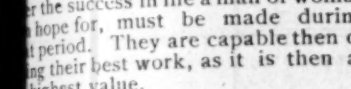

One of the most ugly habits is, talking in church during services and such a mostly noticed among our Sunday school ladies.

A great fault with many a young man and woman is association on account of one's position.

To fail in one thing does not necessarily mean that you will fail in all things. Assume yourself calmly that what you undertake can be adequately done and you are very apt to succeed.

The first public meeting of the Baptist Sunday School Union, under the supervision of the new President, Mr. Alexander Hamilton was held on last Sabbath afternoon at Mt. Carmel Baptist Church. There were 12 out of 47 schools represented.

The program of exercises was very interesting.

Miss Nannie Burroughs read a paper, entitled "God's Promise."

The next paper was on the duties of a Librarian.

Mr. Neal of Wayland Seminary was next introduced and delivered a very good address.

The paper by Miss Dorsey of Liberty Baptist Sunday was one of the best papers read. This lady reasons well, and her elocution was harmonious.

Editor W. Calvin Chase of The BEE was introduced to the Union and made a few remarks.

The next in order was the report of the former President, Mr. Geo. A. Carter.

He reported to the Union over 30 dollars in money that he had left over under his administration.

Mr. Carter is a very conscientious man and one who has his heart in the advancement of the Union.

The exercises throughout were very interesting.

Prof. J. M. Langston, spoke at the Shiloh Lyceum last Sunday afternoon.

The concert for the benefit of the Home for Friendless Girls at the Metropolitan Church on Friday night was a success.

OUR SOUVENIR EDITION.

WHAT IS SAID OF IT.

(From the Wilmington Sentinel.)

The souvenir edition of the Washington, D. C., BEE of Jan. 28th reached the high water mark of Afro-American journalism. Editor W. Calvin Chase has our congratulations. He is not satisfied with a weekly but wants to make The BEE a daily.

(From the American Baptist.)

The BEE, of Washington City, celebrated its 15th birthday last week by issuing a souvenir edition of twelve pages. Bro. Chase is a journalist of great courage and indomitable will, and when he doesn't see a way he makes one. Accept our congratulations.

(From the Peoples Recorder.)

The Washington BEE comes to us this week with its handsome souvenir edition. Brother Chase will please accept our congratulations for the excellent manner in which it was gotten up.

Amuse.

The Bethel Literary and Historical Association observed the anniversary of Lincoln's birth-day at the Metropolitan Church, last Tuesday evening. Addresses were made by Prof. G. W. Cook, L. M. Hershaw, Robert H. Terrell and others. A large and intelligent audience turned out in honor of the great Statesman.

There will be a big oyster roast at Moo & Prieoleau's buffet this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. E. P. Clemmons, principal of the Manassas Industrial School, made a hasty visit to the city on his return from Hampton, Norfolk and New Port News, Va., on Wednesday.

The Manassas School is progressing nicely and Dr. Clemmons, from all reports, is the right man in the right place.

GHOULS IN WASHINGTON.

Two Bodies Accidentally Discovered in an Express-Box.

Washington, Feb. 11.—A big box left at the Baltimore and Ohio depot in this city to be forwarded by express bore two addresses, and the employees of the express company were in doubt as to where it should be sent. They finally opened it and discovered the bodies of two women, entirely nude. One was that of an old colored woman and the other that of a white woman about twenty-five years of age.

After working for some time on the murder theory, the detectives came to the conclusion that the bodies had been shipped by grave robbers. It was learned that a regular system exists for the shipping of bodies stolen from the cemeteries about Washington. The work has been carried on with astonishing boldness, and dozens of bodies have been sent out recently. One of the addresses on the box opened yesterday was Angus McLane, No. 223 Pelham street, Detroit, Mich., and the other was that of a Baltimore party.

Large boxes sent by the same set of men have been forwarded to New Haven and Hartford, Conn., Baltimore and other cities.

WEALTH FROM A BOND BID.

A Poor Clerk Sees $100,000 Profit and Expects More.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 11.—Old heads in the banking business here are astonished at the successful plunge made by Abraham White for a share of the new issue of bonds. Up to a week ago White was an unassuming clerk, on a modest salary with not a dollar in the world. His wife had some real estate in her name out in Reading, and they negotiated a mortgage on it, enough to secure the option on a little gold.

With this White made a bid for some of the issue, and has secured $1,000,000 in his own name, at 111.53, while to his wife was awarded $500,000, at the same figure. He had everything to gain and nothing to lose, even had he been awarded the full $5,000,000, the aggregate of his bids. By a bold stroke he has made himself the envy of hundreds of men who are out in the cold.

White has already netted $10,940 profit by selling $300,000 at 117, and he is holding off for $100,000 bonus on his bargain, having refused $10,000 less than that. He says that he expects to realize $150,000 on his foresight, as he has no doubt that the figure will run up to 120 or more.

MADRID ALARMED BY A METEORITE.

Violent Explosion in the Sky Creates a Panic—Many Persons Injured.

Madrid, Feb. 11.—An immense aerolite exploded above this city at 9:30 a. m. yesterday. There was a vivid glare of light and a loud report, followed by a general panic. The sun was shining clearly, and the only thing visible in the sky was a white cloud, bordered with red, traveling rapidly across the heavens, leaving behind it a train of fine white dust. The explosion occurred twenty miles above the earth, according to the officials of the Madrid Observatory.

The people believed it was an earthquake or a sign of divine wrath. Many persons were injured in the resulting panic and in the frantic attempts to escape from factories and schools.

Seventeen persons were injured in one tobacco factory by the collapse of a staircase when the inmates rushed to escape. At the palace it was at first feared that a bomb had been exploded. The partition wall of the United States Legation collapsed and nearly all the windows of that building were broken. Much damage was done to walls and windows throughout the city, and the force of the explosion was felt for several miles around.

KNIFE DUEL IN CHICAGO.

Brothers Fought to Death While Neighbors Looked On.

Chicago, Feb. 11.—Herman Dahlka is dying of that, inflicted on him last night by his brother Carl in a duel. The brothers, with their families, met at a christening at the house of their sister, in Blackhawk street, and engaged in a bitter quarrel. "Get out your knife," cried Herman, "and come into the yard."

Pushing the women away, the two men sprang down the steps the yard in the rear of the house. Each had a keen-edged pocket knife in his hand, and with angry cries they jumped at one another and began slashing. Suddenly Herman gave a scream of agony and fell, Carl's knife having pierced his left eye. In the meantime the whole neighborhood had been aroused, and men and women gathered along the fence, watching the deadly duel and not daring to interfere.

A policeman arrived just too late to catch Carl, who jumped over the fence and fled. Herman's face and head were slashed in a dozen different directions, and the left eye hung from his socket. One cut extended from the crown of the head to a point below the left eye, and another cut had torn almost half the scalp off.

COBBLERS' CHILDREN.

Wife of an Inspector of a Humane Society Charged With Treating Children Brutally.

Montreal, Feb. 11.—Mrs. Cynthia Bell, wife of the inspector of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals at Ottawa, has been arrested, charged with shocking cruelty to children. The information charges her with binding the tongue of one of her grandchildren, a ten-year-old girl, until mortification set in, and of stripping the other, a boy fourteen years of age, of his clothes, and putting him in a cold garret until his limbs were frozen.

Last week the boy was placed in the Water street hospital, Ottawa, for treatment, suffering from gangrene in one of his feet. Since then five toes have had to be amputated. The little girl is suffering from gangrene of the tongue. The matter has been brought to the attention of the Children's Aid Society.

BIG BOILER EXPLODES.

One Man Killed, One Fatally Hurt and all Panic-Stricken.

Pawtucket, R. I., Feb. 11.—A 110 horse power boiler at the Ann and Hope cotton mill, Lonsdale, exploded yesterday, killing Patrick McCannnon, a fireman, and fatally injuring Hugh McClaren, a coal carrier. James Finnegan, a fireman, was badly scalded, but will recover. Five others were slightly injured. The boiler house was demolished. The mill employees, about 750 in number, were just getting ready for the day's labor when the explosion occurred. The shock was terrific, and was accompanied by the breaking of glass and the sound of falling walls, causing a panic-like rush of the help towards the exits. The engineer says he examined the boiler early yesterday morning and it appeared to be all right. It was of Corliss make, had been in use ten years and was inspected last spring.

President Cleveland to Preside.

New York, Feb. 11.—A great rally will be held at Carnegie Hall on March 2. It will be the climax of a series of meetings in aid of home missions under the auspices of the New York Presbytery. The Rev. Dr. Charles L. Thompson, chairman of the committee on home missions, reported to the Presbytery yesterday that President Cleveland had been asked to preside over this meeting, and that he had not only consented to do so, but had written a letter in which he said that he would probably have something to say with regard to missions among Indian children.

Killed in a Railroad Wreck.

Zanesville, O., Feb. 11.—A north-bound passenger train on the Cincinnati and Muskingum Valley Railway was wrecked ten miles south of here yesterday. Express Messenger Thomas L. Fisher, of Midway, was instantly killed. Engineer Lon Shrigley and Fireman Davis, both of this city, were seriously injured. Three passengers in the smoking car whose names could not be learned were fatally injured.

Met, Loved and Wed.

Chicago, Feb. 11.—William Prior, twenty-one years old, and Miss Belle Vance, seventeen years old, met Friday night at 8 o'clock. At 9 they were engaged to be married, and at 11:30 they were in Milwaukee and married. The elopement caused a commotion in prominent families, but they will be forgiven. They returned to the city yesterday and registered at the Metropolitan.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT

Mashes fingers and strains back handling heavy trunks. Wants all his friends to try it.

MR. GRAY WASHINGTON.

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 27, 1901.

Lyon Manufacturing Co., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Gentlemen—I was always having Rheumatism until I tried Mexican Mustang Liniment, and it took all the pain away. I think it the best remedy I ever used for such things as bruises and strains. I often mash my fingers and strain my back handling heavy trunks around the hotel, and I always find that Mexican Mustang Liniment will fix me all right again. I rub it in well and continue to use it until the pain has left the afflicted parts. I wish all my friends would give it a trial. I know they will never use anything else. It is a mighty good thing for rheumatism I know from personal use. I always recommend it to all my friends.

I am, yours truly,
